- Are curious and inquisitive about their friends and other people in and beyond our school community.
- Have the courage to ask questions and the confidence and vocabulary to speak up about the topic they are learning.
- Use new subject-specific French vocabulary appropriately in their conversations and/or writing.
- Feel valued by their peers and school staff and believe that they can achieve and succeed in French.
- Feel a sense of belonging to their school and local community and can identify with some of the aspirational role models from French speaking countries.
- Have had meaningful, first-hand experiences that have exposed them to a different cultures and ways of life different to their own.
- Leave primary education being secondary ready. Children will be able to read longer texts and to formulate their own, more personalised responses based on a much wider bank of vocabulary, linguistic structures and grammatical knowledge.
